Here's your chance to get a great resource for tutors! The Tutor Handbook is a comprehensive resource for tutors and tutoring programs. Topics include starting the tutor/student relationship off on the right foot, positive motivation and discipline, approaching cultural and learning style differences, and other useful topics. Specific tutoring strategies to use with students at any level of reading achievement and information for other resources within the King County community are also included.

With support from United Way of King County, Seattle Reads Tutoring Compact created this great handbook as a how-to guide for tutors. It's a wonderful resource for anyone working with young people. Handbooks are $9.00 each.

For more information on the handbook or other tutoring opportunities, call Danielle at (206) 461-4539 or email mentoring@uwkc.org
