- WHAT: United Way's All-Star Softball Classic is an entertaining way to see local celebrities play ball at Safeco Field. Will Team Captain Dan Wilson force Jay Buhner and his team to play with a salami instead of a bat? Will Randy Johnson hit more home runs than Clint Dempsey? All of the on-field action and antics help raise money to support struggling youth in our community.
- WHY: On any given night in King County, about one-thousand youth are homeless and thousands more are at risk. These young people have the same hopes and dreams for the future, just like anybody else. The difference is they don't have the kind of support and resources that so many of us have. United Way of King County invests in organizations and programs which support homeless youth.
