

SEPT

29th

Happy Hours & Hellos at Metier Brewing (Cherry St.)

Networking event for young professionals. Guests will enjoy some 'damn good beer' & snacks while reconnecting and making new friends! At this event, guests will also learn more about how United Way is working towards ending critical issues our community faces—and how they can get involved.

<https://www.uwkc.org/events/advancing-racial-equity-event-series/>

Topic: Basic needs

Audience: Young professionals

Exposure Opportunities:

- Pre- and post-event emails
- On-site recognition
- Social media
- Website

OCT

5th

Advancing Racial Equity Series – Individuals Driving Change

Guests will hear from LaTosha Brown, co-founder of Black Voters Matter. The discussion will center around voter rights and advocacy. Guests will also learn about United Way's Black Community Building Collective and how they can get involved.

<https://www.uwkc.org/events/eat-drink-be-generous/>

Topic: Racial equity

Audience: Donors and prospective donors who care about equity

Exposure Opportunities:

- Pre- and post-event emails
- Advertising
- On-site recognition
- Social media
- Website

20th

Virtual Eat, Drink & Be Generous with Chef Kaleena Bliss

Guests will learn how to make a delicious dish from Chopped winner & Executive Chef at the Thompson Seattle, Kaleena Bliss. Guests will also learn about how United Way is combatting food & housing insecurity in our community and how they can support this crucial work.

<https://www.uwkc.org/events/eat-drink-be-generous/>

Topic: Basic needs

Audience: Donors and prospective donors

Exposure Opportunities:

- Pre- and post-event emails
- On-site recognition
- Social media
- Website